"I have planned our annual business meeting for many years. Mark's presentation on "The Four Commitments of a Winning Team" was the most engaging, relevant keynote presentation that we have had. His presentation truly made our event a great success. His presentation is highly polished, entertaining, and the message sticks. I highly recommend Mark as a presenter!"

—Jake White, Director of Communications

"Probably the best keynote we've ever had at our annual business meeting."

—Wilford Clyde, President/CEO of Clyde Companies
