fueling the entrepreneurial engine

24 April 2009

Dear Mark,

From all of us here at the Entrepreneurs' Organization, and from the EO Arizona University Committee and all our members, we would like to thank you for joining us at EO's Arizona University, held from 25-29 March 2009 at the JW Marriott Camelback Inn, Resort & Spa in Scottsdale, Arizona. It was our honor to have you address our audience of leading entrepreneurs as a Power Speaker.

Your presentation The Four Commitments of a Winning Team: Sure-fire Strategies to Get Your Team into Action and Achieve Breakthrough Results, delivered numerous take home points and tremendous value. Our members gained remarkable insight on how to create, maintain and lead a successful team. You conveyed your message with a personal and direct approach in the short 30 minutes you were given to present.

You recognized and helped the EO Arizona University Planning Committee and Staff meet our goal of bringing a tremendous amount of valuable information in a very short amount of time to over 200 members. The tallied evaluations from your presentation averaged to be an amazing 9.01 out of 10, and the comments from our members were positive and commending:

"Great story, relevant thoughts and ideas, well communicated."

"Very motivating speaker. What an interesting story!"

"Mark Eaton was awesome!"

"Loved Mark Eaton! A real guy with a real story."

Once again, thank you so much for delivering an awesome presentation. We wish you all the best in your future as an entrepreneur and a speaker!

Kindest Regards,

Valerie Vasquez-Guzman
