Dear Mark,

We are so pleased to have had you address members of the Utah League of Cities and Towns during our Annual Convention. The mayors, city managers, and department heads in attendance enjoyed your friendly, down-to-earth manner as well as your inspiring and motivational presentation, "The Four Commitments of a Winning Team."

We've received good feedback about your remarks, including the fact that you taught "take home" concepts and gave valuable challenges that will be applied in the work environment. People were also thrilled that you were so accessible following your lunchtime presentation. They truly enjoyed both speaking with you and getting their photo taken with you.

With your motivational message and personal approach, you delivered a presentation perfect for our conference. I'm sure the concepts you taught will make a difference in creating and maintaining healthy communities across Utah.

Sincerely,

Susan Wood

Director of Communications and Training
