Dear Mark,

Thank you for your keynote presentation to our registered representatives at our Quantum Leap Workshop in Irvine, California in March. Our attendees marveled at your presentation and presence during the workshop!

Your polished and professional presentation was reflected in our speaker evaluations that we collect at each of our workshops and conferences. Your score on content, delivery, and originality was at the top of the charts! Your message and story were relevant to every person in the room. I can't count how many people came up to my staff and me after the workshop to tell us this is the best one they have attended yet!

We are very pleased to have engaged you to come share your experience and message with our representatives and we can't wait for round 2 of our workshop in Washington D.C. in May.

Sincerely,

Ron King
